

ALL OVER OKLAHOMA and Neighboring States

Oklahoma

SIOUX CITY, Oct. 10.—The executives of the city federation of women's clubs and the office manager of the state department of agriculture will meet this week to plan Christmas fete. It is planned to have a community bazaar, free of charge, and a distribution of gifts.

BOKALDOKE, Oct. 10.—Dr. Rutherford, pastor of the Presbyterian church, has responded to accept a call to the pastorate of the First Presbyterian church of Bokaldeke. The Presbyterians, after action by the local church the Presbyterians will be requested to dismiss the pastor. It is expected that Dr. Rutherford may take up his new work November 1.

VINITA, Oct. 10.—During the last week in October one of seven or eight speakers gave a talk on the subject of "Our People." The speakers were from the Western Baptist association, comprising citizens, Crain and Deane, and a committee of Rev. J. W. Hedges, pastor of the Vicksburg church and chair of the association. Reverend Hedges was a speaker at the meeting which opened the campaign of information to be made during October and November among all Southern Baptists on the subject of the missions. A series of that denomination and the "flying squadrons" trip through the association will be in connection with that project.

MIAAMI, Oct. 10.—An electric car of the United Automobile Workers' union, in a Ford car driven by J. H. Hill, destroyed the car and breaking the stem off the couch. The police station stated that Hill was driving on the west side of the street and passed into the couch. It was an accident. The car was in the possession of a bond for his appearance in police court Saturday, October 14. Uline Chamberlain was in the car with Hill, and both were injured. Both live at Tulsa, Okla.

PAWHUKA, Oct. 10.—The Orange county road commission, including road near Pawhuska, using native limestone for the surface, Orange county should continue to make this a good road. A road proves a success other roads will be built soon as the cost is much less than other roads which have been hard surfaced.

EL RENO, Oct. 10.—The charter for the El Reno branch of Davis' Lodge has been received, and Rev. E. P. Depoister has been elected chaplain of the organization. He is the first Negro to serve in that capacity. The Lodge now has a ride a few days ago to Concho and spent two nights roughing out camp life.

EL RENO, Oct. 10.—W. T. Malone who resided as receiver in the unit of the El Reno school system until his election to the school board, is to take a position as state bank examiner, has been succeeded by Smith Taylor, appointed by the court.

BRISTOW, Oct. 10.—Contract for paving the main business street of the town of Brinkley has been let, and Rev. E. P. Depoister has been elected chaplain of the organization. He is the first Negro to serve in that capacity. The Lodge now has a ride a few days ago to Concho and spent two nights roughing out camp life.

COLEMAN, Okla., Oct. 10.—This city has voted to prohibit the use of the Joplin & Pittsburgh railway company to extend its line from this city to Picher, Okla., a distance of five miles. The vote was 44 to 10.

COFFEEVILLE, Kan., Oct. 10.—Emery Kelly, a Santa Fe railroad section foreman, was shot and killed in his home and received a patent on a new rail frog device and as a consequence of its demonstrated superiority over other frogs in use, he and his wife have been paid a cash bonus of $22,000 by a St. Louis manufacturing concern, which makes the device. Kelly is a son of the father of nine children and the stepson of another. He had been residing in a box car here.

SHAWNEE, Okla., Oct. 10.—Letters of "The Daily Maroon," the student paper of the Cheng university which have been received here indicate that Jim Dean, star of the team, is making good on the freshman squad. The sport writer of the Maroon indicates that Dean seems sure of a berth on the freshman team.

WEDEZKA, Oct. 10.—W. W. Griffin has been appointed to the office of city clerk of Wedezka by the town trustees. Griffin has moved his family here and is a member of the church in which office Griffin takes, and has resigned to take a position in Oklahoma City.

EL RENO, Oct. 10.—Still printing after 40 years at the trade is the record of Frank Grimes, 64, of El Reno. He started in this office. He started at 18 years of age, and has been printing ever since December 23 marking the sixtieth anniversary of his start in the business.

BRISTOW, Oct. 10.—Elmer Heard, incoming president of the local council of the Boy Scouts of America, will be the chairman of Briskow to serve as the chairman of the scout committee of the chamber of commerce.

ALVA, Oct. 10.—W. D. Kenney, county attorney, has been conducting a poultry judging demonstration at the Fair. Poultry comes from north of Wewoka. A great many of the neighbors attended the demonstration which was accompanied by a lecture.

CHICKASHA, Oct. 10.—Hiram E. Reed of Chickasha, Okla., and B. J. Pease of Dallas, Texas, are spending several days in the city. They are interested in the new gas field of Grady county and are watching developments here.

TRIBBLEY, Oct. 10.—Tribbley is just a little country village school building and its surroundings is a credit to the town. The building is of splendid design and the surroundings are beautiful. It is the prettiest place that we have ever visited. An audience seating 200 is nicely finished and the stage is carpeted with green curtains with gold fringe. Seven teachers are employed, one a Smith-Hughes man. Some work has been done towards beautifying the school, but it is still in a very pretty setting.

MACOME, Oct. 10.—Masseng has a real home. Mr. Cornell and his latest on differences as he sees it between John Field and Jack Walton, the good poetry and containing the party he believes in. He is receiving many letters of congratulations for the explanation he has given to readers in many parts of the state. The original verse came out in the Tecumseh Republican.

DURANT, Oct. 10.—By common consent a Ministers' association was organized here.

SHAWNEE, Okla., Oct. 10.—Grand marshal of the annual Grand Lodge of Knights of Pythias has been in the city for the past few days in the interests of the organization and will speak at the Shawnee Kiwanis Club. A class of thirty of forty will be initiated.

Missouri

REILIGMAN, Mo., Oct. 10.—Water is being sold to people living on the ridges in certain sections of the Arkansas and Missouri Ozarks. Cisterns have dried up and created a severe grip of 10 weeks' drought, the largest record since 1901. People are hauling water from creeks and springs. Livestock are standing in the hollows. Many of these are flowing but little water. In many sections livestock has to go a long way for water.

ROUER, Mo., Oct. 10.—Another big fire was set at Owasso, Okla., on Saturday night. One hundred and fifty gallons of kerosene, six gallons of pure corn whisky and a whiskey lead, the time, were taken in the raid. Beach Nance and Terry Gay were arrested.

BOLIVAR, Mo., Oct. 10.—Four fires have occurred in northwest Bolivar in recent months. The latest destruction, however, took place in the residence. At the time the blaze was discovered, shortly after midnight, the building was almost entirely destroyed and nothing remained except a portion of the roof. The fire was put out by a short duration of the building, and the property was not insured.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Oct. 10.—At a special meeting of the Pulaski county court, held last Monday, the court bought three car loads of condemned cotton. The cotton was from three different companies. The present and submitted prices, the contract being awarded to the Russell, Grand and Clark Company, were taken. The amount will be paid for out of the special road and bridge fund and divided between the six townships of the county.

NEOSHO, Mo., Oct. 10.—Superintendent of the Neosho Canning company, Fred F. Folk, has been buying tomatoes through canning for the season, and is now making tomato sauce etc. The crop this year is the continued supply of dry weather, and the plant obtained only enough tomatoes to can seven cars. The plants are now running slow about the middle of August.

JANES, Mo., Oct. 10.—Fred F. Folk

Laughs That Make You Live Longer

By BUD FISHER

MUTT AND JEFF—So Many 'Nines' Looked Suspicious to Mutt.

POLLY AND HER PALS—“Safety First,” Is Paw’s Motto

By CLIFF STERRETT

CASEY THE COP—Aw! What’s in a Name!

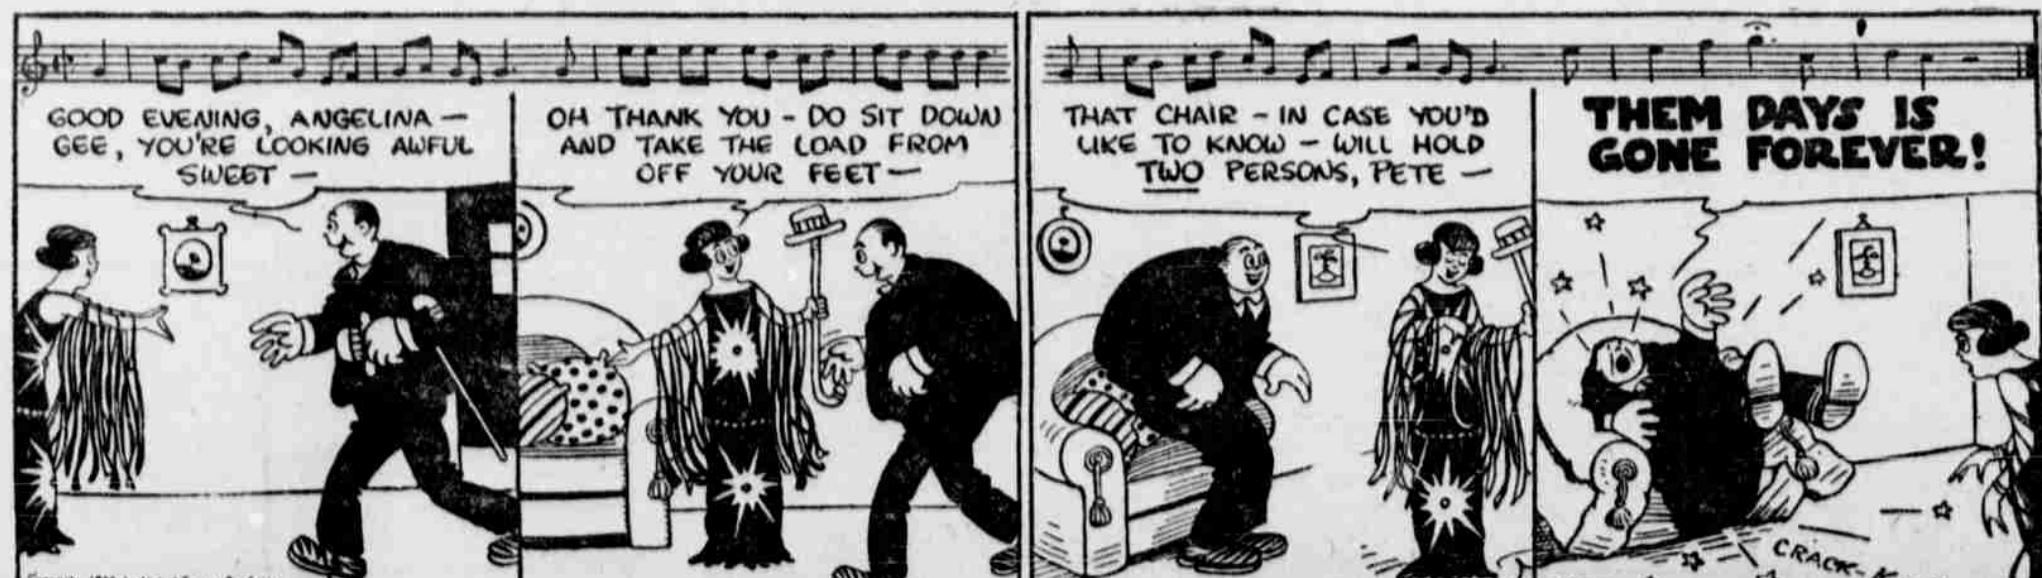

By H. M. TALBURTT

BARNEY GOOGLE—Well, Well, Evidently Spark Plug’s No Rocking Chair.

By BILLY DE BECK

THEM DAYS IS GONE FOREVER—Practice This in the Parlor.

By AL. POSEN

BONHAM, Texas, Oct. 10.—The short course for boys, to be held here October 14-15, will be open to the girls. Those present will be the girls in some Bonham homes.

BURNETT, Texas, Oct. 10.—The Southern Graphite company's mine reopened with a considerable number of men and women. The means of getting work to the men and the means of giving work to a large number of men in the past, putting thousands of dollars in circulation here. The graphite is believed to be well-nigh inexhaustible.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Oct. 10.—Contracts for construction of 146 miles of good roads in eight southwest Texas counties will be approved by the state highway commission on Oct. 14, it was announced through T. H. Spence, engineer of division No. 6, stationed in this city. It was announced Saturday.

PARIS, Texas, Oct. 10.—The municipal abattoir of Paris, which is taxed to its capacity and is slaughtering more animals at present than even known in its history. The engineer has been brought up for consideration at the next meeting of the city council.

WACO, Texas, Oct. 10.—With the name of Earle E. Mayfield printed thereon, but scratched a copy of the official ballot paper, was a petition signed by John W. Baker. He will comply with the request made by Secretary of State E. F. Stearns to urge that as far as possible his full name may appear on the ballot in the event it is certified later.

JANES, Mo., Oct. 10.—Fred F. Folk